Timing

Most well-prepared families receive a decision in six to eight months on average. Timing ultimately rests with the government's review, and we prepare every file to move as quickly as the programme allows.

The Journey with PassPro

01
A private conversation
Your goals, family composition, and timing. Confidential and unhurried.

02
Eligibility confirmation
We assess your profile in depth and confirm eligibility before any financial commitment is made.

03
Preparation
Documents collected, verified, and assembled to the standard the government expects.

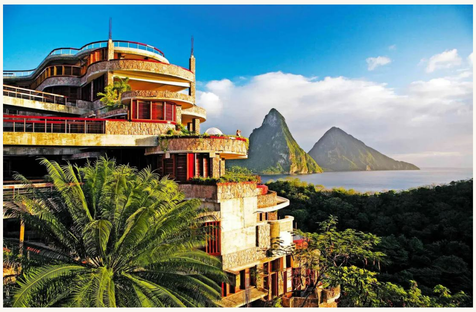
04
Submission and review
Filed with the Citizenship by Investment Unit; we manage every query on your behalf.

05
Approval and passports
The contribution completes after approval. Citizenship for the whole family, for life.

Travel with the Passport

A UK visa has been required since 5 March 2026. Schengen short stays remain visa-exempt; EES border registration is active and ETIAS is not yet operating, with launch expected in the last quarter of 2026.

Why Families Choose St. Lucia



- Designed in 2015 with the benefit of three decades of Caribbean programme experience.
- Among the lowest additional-dependant costs in the region.
- Three routes under one programme: fund contribution, government bonds, and approved real estate.
